Manual Limitations
MAN'S LIMITATIONS

I. Introduction:
1. Jer 10:22
2. It is well for man to know his limitations. It helps keep him humble.
3. It helps him to plan more wisely his life both for time and eternity.
4. There are many things man cannot know or do; Every power of man has its limitations.
5. No man so brainy, so industrious, so consecrated, but that God has written "limited" after his name and work.

II. Things Man Cannot Know:
1. How old the world is. Many guesses, some differ by millions of years.
2. How much longer it will stand. 2 Pet 3:8-11 (Here.
3. When Jesus will come again.
4. When death will come to us—thus, must prepare. Heb 9:27
5. Whether we will have another opportunity to accept Christ.
   2 Tim 2:23 "Foolish and ignorant questions gentiles stakeicularly that man can improve on any of God’s ways.

III. Things Some Think They Know: But Do Not:
1. That God will accept additions to His worship. Man is willing to take the chance with their own wisdom and logic (?)
   Instrumental Music; Fancy Festivals—Patrons & Oral Soliloquies;
   Country bands; Hunting excursions, etc.
2. That one can be saved without obedience to the gospel. Rom 6:17—became lashed from the heart...
3. That one can be saved out of the church. Acts 2:47—The church is the saved.
4. That there are many churches that please Jehovah; thus one church as good as another. Eph 4:4; Col 12:18
5. That God will excuse ignorance of His will. Acts 17:30

CONCLUSION:
1. Due to man's limitations, how dependent we must be on God's Word. Relying completely on what He says.
2. Truly, Jeremiah knew what He said was truth.
   Jer 10:23—"O Jehovah, I know that the way of man is not in himself; it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps."

Every power of man has its limitations.

Some of our religious friends would practice this.

"Go to hell!"
